COMPANY OVERVIEW

WHY PILLAR

Written scope first

Tasks, frequencies, exclusions, and access rules are agreed in writing before a price is quoted.

Owner-inspected

An owner checks the work against the scope on a stated schedule and signs the inspection record.

One contact

A single named person receives every issue and records the corrective action.

Right-sized

We take the buildings we can staff ourselves, and say so plainly when a scope is beyond us.

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

Pillar’s two managing members bring supervisory experience from high-volume, public-facing service operations: sanitation controls, inspection readiness, shift accountability, and presentation standards. Every Pillar account is run by an owner.
